Another look at Christmas' commandments

By SHIRLEY W. WALTON
Extension Agent
Chatham, Virginia

Because of many requests, I am again sharing one of my favorites for the holiday season. Many of you will recognize this because we have put it in the Christmas booklets that the Extension Homemakers used to prepare for distribution in the county. It is one of my favorites and I hope you will enjoy it being shared with you again.

Ten Commandment for Christmas

I. Thou shalt not leave "Christ" out of Christmas, making it Xmas. To most minds "X" stands not for Christ, but for the algebraic unknown.

II. Thou shalt not value thy gifts by their cost, for many shall signify love that is more blessed and beautiful than silver and gold.

III. Thou shalt give thyself with thy gifts. Thy love, thy personality, and thy service shall increase the value of thy gifts an hundredfold and he that receiveth it shall treasure it forever.

IV. Thou shalt not let Santa Claus take the place of Christ, lest Christmas become a fairy tale rather than a sublime reality in the spiritual realm.

V. Thou shalt not burden thy servant. The shop girl, the mail carrier, and the merchant should have thy consideration.

VI. Thou shalt not neglect the church. Its Christmas services are planned to help spiritualize the Christmas season for thee, thy child and thy household.

VII. Thou shalt not neglect the needy. Let thy bountiful blessings be shared with the many who will go hungry and cold unless thou art generous at Christmas.

VIII. Thou shalt be as a little child. Christmas is the day of the Christ Child, and not until thou hast become in spirit as a little child art thou ready to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

IX. Thou shalt prepare thy soul for Christmas. Verily most of us spend much time and money getting gifts ready but few seconds in preparing our souls.

X. Thou shalt give thy heart to Christ. Let thy Christmas list have Christ at the top and thy heart as the gift. In so doing, thou are as the Wise Men of old and verily thou shalt find thyself born again on Christmas Day.

On behalf of the Appomattox County Extension Staff, I wish to extend our warmest good wishes to each of you and your families for a joyous holiday season. May it be filled with peace, happiness and love.

If you have a homemaking question or problem, you may call 352-8244 or you may write P.O. Box 488, Appomattox, VA 24522. It is always a pleasure to hear from you and to help you.

Merry Christmas!
